IT'S UNFAIR

Perhaps to Ask You to Read so Often the Statement

About the quality of goods found at the large drug and book house of Saur & Balsley, but it is done for your good and the good of your family, if you have any. Too much cannot be said of anything that is good and a public benefit, therefore too much cannot be said in favor of this house, which has proved itself for years a public benefactor and helper in time of sickness and distress, and when in need of goods which go to brighten and make comfortable your homes.

The store of Saur & Balsley has become almost a by word in every home in this and adjoining counties, and their reputation is known far and near. This has been built up during a business course which has been in operation for over a quarter of a century in Napoleon, which has not only been successful in every way, but a marvel of prosperity from a business point of view. This enviable record has not only been made redound to the benefit of the proprietors but they share it with their customers, by selling their goods at the lowest possible prices.

The finest line of toilet articles in this part of the state can be found at the store of Saur & Balsley. Soaps, perfumes, brushes, combs, and every article known to the toilet. Fancy stationery in endless variety, and all supplies for town and country schools such as books, pads, pencils, slates, etc.

Their drugs are fresh and pure, their medicines of the best concoctions in the market, and intended for both man and beast. The human system at this season of the year not only needs attention, but also the system of your stock. Look after the welfare of your stock as well as the welfare of yourself.

The wall paper department of this house is the most complete in this section of the State. As is also their paint and oil department. As this is the season of the year to brush up and brighten the appearance of your homes, you can do no better than by selecting your supplies at the store of Saur & Balsley. A fine line of window shades and decorations.

And if there is any one thing above another in which this firm prides itself, it is in their assortment of paints, oils and varnishes. They handle none but the best brands in the market, and when they sell you a supply, you can rely upon it that the goods are the best. Their paints and oils have given the best of satisfaction for a long series of years; they have been tested and not found wanting. When in need of paints and supplies, call on Saur & Balsley, Napoleon, O.

THE GREAT BIG FAIR!

DO YOUR BEST!

To Make this Year's Exhibition the Great Success it Deserves to be.

Leading all other agricultural exhibitions has always been the position conceded to the Napoleon Fair at all times, and if hard work and honest effort will have anything to do with it, the success of the Napoleon Fair this year is already assured. The management are doing all in their power to get things in better shape financially and otherwise than they have ever before, and they are succeeding admirably. The farmers and every other resident of the county can do a great deal toward making this year's exhibition a success, and right now is the time to commence to do it. Save out some of your best grain for an exhibit, get that fine colt and that over before, and enter them, those fat hogs might take a premium, also the sheep, and the cattle would look well in the premium parade. The ladies always do well at the fair, but this year they can do better than ever before. God bless them, what would a fair be without the ladies? Bring in the products of the kitchen and the dairy, you will get a premium on the best, and right here we might say that the premium list is liberal and all premiums paid in cash. Artemus Ward once said, "Agriculture is the mother of farm produce and the mother-in-law of garden sass." Let the mother and the mother-in-law both be on hand, likewise the son and the daughter with other relatives, and Napoleon and Henry county will have the greatest fair in their history. Children under 12 years of age will be admitted free on Wednesday; which is children's day. Don't forget to bring the children.

A VALUABLE DISCOVERY

Made at Whitehouse, Wednesday, by Prof. Edward Orton.

Prof. Edward Orton, state geologist in company with C. W. Evers and Dr. Downs, of Waterville, made a trip to Whitehouse, a town on the shore of Lake Erie, near Waterville, Wednesday, to make some observations about the quarries. The examination of the Ryan stone quarry there confirmed what has been surmised by a few, that the formation is purely coral. This discovery is regarded as very important, as there are but two others outside of the Florida reefs in the country where such formations are found. These are a point near Louisville, Ky., and Logansport, Ind.

Prof. Orton was in this part of the state for the purpose of completing his exploration preparatory to issuing his annual report. The novelty would be well worth any persons time to visit the Ryan quarry, as an inspection reveals the same formation as was found at the bottom of the sea.

Mr. Evers who has spent considerable time in the study of the geological peculiarities of this part of the state regards this a very important matter. The Loch quarry this way from Whitehouse, has an almost unlimited deposit of glass sand of the best quality and is in great demand in the manufacture of glass.—Bowling Green Dem.

TEACHERS.

Who Will Fill the Departments in the Napoleon Schools for the Next Year.

The Napoleon Board of Education have hired the following corps of teachers for the ensuing year: F. J. Beck—Superintendent. J. F. C. Robinson—Principal. Lizzie Balsley—Asst. Principal. W. P. Duffy—A Grammar. R. Weisbach—German Department.

UNASSIGNED.

Teachers' Institute in Session. The 28th annual institute of the Henry County Teachers' Association opened at the Union school house in this city on Monday, August 6th, with a fair attendance. The institute will continue two weeks, during which time, a thorough course will be gone over, which will be most beneficial to our school teachers who accept the privileges of the institute. Monday's, Tuesday's and Wednesday's programs consisted in instructions given by Prof. Beck and Grabel, in Grammar, Geography, Physiology, Arithmetic, Reading and History. The efforts of these gentlemen are highly spoken of by the teachers and others who heard them, and were listened to with marked attention. The program for to-day is as follows: Geography—Hydrography, Prof. Beck, Grammar—The Indefinite, Prof. Grabel, Psychology—Association and its laws, Prof. Beck, Physiology—How to teach it, Prof. Grabel, History—Slavery and its agitations, Prof. Beck, Arithmetic, Prof. Grabel.

"But, Teddy, why didn't you say the Lord's prayer when you were at grandma's?" "Teddy—Well what was the use of asking for daily bread when I knew grandma would take care of the time for me?"

"Let us next turn our attention," said the Kansas candidate.

"To the all important question, 'Had we better irrigate?'"

"Belcher!" then came in chorus as each voter winked his eye.

And the crowd all struck a bee line for the drug store nearest by.

—Kansas City Journal.

Rebecca Withnaso, of Brownvalley, Ind., says: "I have been in distressed condition for three years from Nervousness, Weakness of the Stomach, Dyspepsia and Indigestion until my health was gone. I had been doctoring constantly with no relief. I bought one bottle of South American Nervine, which did me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely remedy; a few bottles of it has cured me completely. I consider it the grandest medicine in the world." Warranted the most wonderful stomach and nerve cure ever known. Trial bottle free. Sold by Dr. J. H. Humphrey, Napoleon, O., Aug. 16-17.

"So you think there is no hope of her recovery, doctor?"

"Doctor—None; the disease baffles me. It is nothing new."

"Tell her no, doctor, and I don't think she'll mind when she knows it's something late."

Putting Down the Windows At Night.

On the advent of a thunder shower it is rarely that a man wakes first. If he should be asleep, so as not to disturb his wife, and so forth, he would be the first to go to sleep again. How it frequently happens that he wakes up and hears that it is raining and seems to lose all judgment. She catches her husband by the hair and shaking his head hysterically, screams: "Get up! get up quickly! It's a pouring right down in torrents, and all the windows are up!"

He cannot wake up under such circumstances with an immediately clear conception of the case, in fact it frequently happens that he is away out on the floor before his eyes are fairly open, having but one idea really at work, and that is to what he is doing out of bed. The first thing he does is to strike a light, and while he is moving around for the matches and searching that some one has broken into the house and moved them from where he laid them on going to bed, which is always plausible enough, she hurries after him the following tones:

"Do hurry, hurry, how that rain is coming right into these windows! We won't have a carpet left if you don't move faster. What on earth are you doing all this time? Can't you see that the rain is coming in? What's going to stumle around here looking for matches, are you, when the water is pouring in? Go without a light. What a man you are! I might have better got up in the first place. Well (desperingly) let things go to ruin if you are a mind to. I've said all I'm going to, and I don't care if the whole house goes to smash. You always would have your own way, and I'll pose you always will, and now you can do as you please, but don't you dare to open your mouth to me about it when the rain's done. I've talked and talked till I'm tired to death, and I can't talk any more. We never could keep anything done if it were ever so. John Henry, are you or are you not going to shut down those windows?"

He moves out into the other room with a heavy heart. He knows very well the direction in which the wind is blowing, and he knows it shows him on the verge of climbing over a stool or across the center table. If there is a rocking chair in the house he will strike a match and light it. He never misses, and it never hits a man in but one spot, and that is just at the base of his spine. We have had a man who has had three dried rockers of all patterns and prices, and always receive the first blow in the one place. Virginia, who is a woman of some spirit, once told us that a rocking chair always hits a man on the shin first.

And when a man sits up in the dead of the night to shut down the windows, he never misses the rocking chair. It is the rear end of one of the rockers which catches him. It is the rear end of the chair which catches him. He knows his audience too well. A woman never falls over a rocking chair, and a man never understands why a man does. But she can tell whether a man has hit him or not. He puts down the windows and he finally reaches them. A rocking chair window (if we may be allowed the term) can be heard three miles far as any other.

TWO OHIO INVENTORS.

They Will Make a Fortune Out of Car Occupiers.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 4.—Senator Calvin E. Brice and Russell Sage, of New York, through their attorneys, have closed a deal here by which they secure control of the automatic fire extinguisher, the price of which is set at all competitors at the Chicago convention of contractors last October, and is alleged to be the best device for the purpose ever invented.

The inventors are two Ohio men, Eli Lambert and Otis Jackson, of Kenton. Under the contract signed, these patents are given to the inventor for a term of years, and a royalty of $2 for every car equipped with the device. By an act of Congress, passed several years ago, every car in the United States is to have a fire extinguisher, and the contract is for 1898. The deal is one of the largest closed here in several years.

A Big Fruit Farm.

In Loudoun County, Va., is one of the largest fruit farms in the country. It contains 60,000 vines, 45,000 peach trees, 8,000 apple and pear trees, and several hundred English walnut and Italian chestnut trees. The enterprise began at the experiment of two brothers who believed that the northern States were the best for fruit raising. They bought 500 acres of land on Loudoun Heights and the first season planted a peach orchard. This was in 1887. Since that time they have increased their holdings steadily, and their fruit farm promises to rival the largest ranches on the Pacific Coast.

Died.

PARKER.—Gladys A., daughter of Joseph M. and Aditha A. Parker was born May 2nd, 1894, died July 29th, 1894, aged 1 year, 2 months and 27 days.

The funeral was held at Mount Olive church, conducted by Rev. Felt, after which the remains were laid to rest in the M. Trison cemetery.

Little Gladys was a sufferer for weeks of Summer Complaint, but during the time she never never failed to cry or scarcely make a sound; rarely, never was a child more patient; she certainly is now one of God's sweetest angels.

Put away the little dress. That our darling used to wear. She will need them on the earth. — She has "blinded the Golden Star." She is with the happy angels. And I'm sure they will have her. Where her little feet are waiting. In the realm of perfect bliss.

My little girl, my little girl. We will miss you very much. We will miss you very much. All the coming weary years. Don't forget the little girl who was. For the little girl who was. For the little girl who was. Up above the Golden Star.

Kiss the little curly tresses. Cut them and dress our dear little daughter. Do the angels kiss our darling. In the realm so bright and fair. Oh, we pray to meet our darling. For a long long sweet embrace. Where her little feet are waiting. And we hope to face.

A FRIEND.

We thank those who so kindly assisted us during the illness and death of our dear little daughter, and also give thanks to those who presented the beautiful floral offerings, and may they all be as good to us as "Piper of Heaven." MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH PARKER AND FAMILY.

Sommer complaint is the principal sickness now.

The Republican county convention will be held on September 4th.
